Don't learn just poses, learn how life works within you while in the pose, and how you can use this piece of life to have better relationship first with yourself.

“There is too much fluff stuff going around with yoga in the United States. Real yoga is about experiencing the relationship with yourself by precisely awakening the ‘Pranic Shakti’ and balancing the ‘Shiva’ energy in the body. Then you may come to know what it means to be centered and rooted in your self”. Guruji Bryant Francesco

Healing the Spine – Spinal Rejuvenation Series

Why should you practice yoga with us?

Practicing Santosh Yoga with Guruji Bryant Francesco you tap into his 34 years of teaching yoga and the richness of his Indian heritage.

Guruji Bryant Francesco has trained teachers from LA to Michigan. From India and Italy to the US. His first teacher training program started in 2009 because teachers who were already certified in other schools of yoga realized that they hadn't learned what yoga is, until they experienced Guruji Bryant Francesco's teachings.
